

HAPPY IN YOUR HOME OR READY TO ROAM?

Do you want to spend your retirement years in your own house, or is independent living a better choice for you? Here are a few questions to ask yourself about where you'll most enjoy spending the best years of your life.

How do you feel about household maintenance?

It makes me feel handy.

I'd rather not bother with it.

How social are you?

I'm happy with my social circle.

What kind of food do you most enjoy?

I'm a good cook, so I prefer the meals I make myself.

I love dining out, so I want multiple restaurants to choose from.

I'd love an opportunity to meet people and make new friends.

Do you spend time on the activities you love?

I want to find more fun activities and projects I'll enjoy.

I already have lots of pursuits and hobbies.

Which is most important to you?

I want my children to inherit my home.

I want to travel, spend time with my family, and live my retirement years to the fullest.

WHICH ANSWERS DID YOU CHOOSE?

Mostly

YOU'VE GOT IT GOOD

You have everything you need right where you are. Sounds like staying in your own home is the right decision for you.

Mostly

YOU'RE READY FOR A FRESH START

It's time to learn more about the freedom of independent living. There are many different types of senior communities to choose from—some more casual, some more upscale, and some with more amenities than others. All you have to do is find the right community for you.